January 2018 Newsletter

Happy New Year!

2018 is your year! From a total life-style overhaul, to adopting the idea of random acts of kindness, to taking up a new hobby, Taber Public Library has you covered with books on fitness, nutrition and cooking, mindfulness and making! Perhaps you want to try to commit to a reading challenge: that's no problem because we have thousands of books in our collection, hundreds of thousands of book in the Chinook Arch Regional Library System, and millions of books available through Interlibrary Loan! However you go about your self-improvement this New Year, our library staff can help set you up with the resources you need to fulfill your 2018 resolutions.

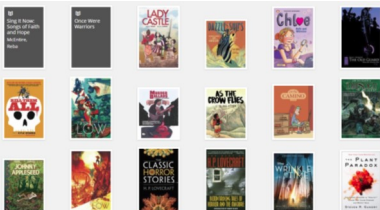

2017 By the Numbers

You may not know this, but libraries love numbers and stats. Below are some of Taber Public Library's 2017 stats as of the beginning of December:

- ⇒ Total Visitors: 54320
- ⇒ New Memberships: 1428
- ⇒ Program Participants: 4412
- ⇒ Items Circulated: 65150

What's New at Taber Public Library

Books, DVDs & Games

New books, DVDs and games are added to the collection every month. For a list of the newest titles, visit the Library's Recent Arrivals page at: taber.bibliocommons.com/explore/recent_arrivals. You can filter the lists by what has arrived on the shelves, versus what is still on order, as well as by format, content, audience, and language. Have fun browsing!

Programs

Taber Public Library always has new and exciting special one-off programs happening every month. With a new year we are unveiling a new reoccurring program, Time for Rhymes, which is perfect for children two years old and younger. Drop in for songs, simple stories and rhymes, starting at 10:30 am—11:00 am on Wednesday, January 31, 2018.
